IF I WERE A TOURIST!

Course	English	Grade	8th Grade	Duration	4 lesson hours (4x40')

Overview

This learning scenario prioritises the development of the students' 21st -century skills, specifically the 4Cs (critical thinking, communication, collaboration, and creativity), alongside the cultivation of their digital literacy. While the teacher plays an active role in the pre-activity phase, contributing significantly to the development of instructional resources, their role during classroom activities shifts to that of a facilitator, providing guidance and support to promote active student learning. The utilisation of learning management system EBA enables the teacher to dedicate more time to in-class interaction by assigning pre-lesson tasks that allow the students to study fundamental vocabulary and grammatical

APPLICATION

Activities

Before the Lesson

The teacher shares Tourism

Pre-Activity

The teacher initiates the lesson with an icebreaker. The students are asked to write a few questions on a piece of paper that they can ask their friends sitting next to them. The teacher explains that the purpose of writing these questions is to find out their friends' preferences regarding tourist destinations around the world. The teacher gives examples such as "Would you rather visit the Taj Mahal or Giza during your summer holiday? Would you rather live in Tokyo or Arizona for a year?"

While Activity

After preparing the students for the topic with a warm-up activity, the teacher informs them that they will work individually. The students are required to watch and listen to the animation carefully. At the end of the animation, they are asked to answer some comprehension questions (Annex-1).

Following the question and answer session, the teacher assigns a new task for ongoing lesson. The

Before the Lesson

The teacher creates a How Much Do You Know about the World? spin the wheel game via one of the gamified measurement and evaluation web tools that includes questions about tourist attractions of some famous countries around the world (Annex-4).

The teacher creates a digital diary titled My Lovely Diary via digital story creation tool. The topic concerns 13-year-old Ayşe's recent holiday. In her diary, Ayşe provides details of her holiday, including transport, accommodation, and sightseeing. The teacher uses visuals to strengthen the impact of the instructional material. The teacher prepares comprehension questions which the students are to find

Lesson 3 and Lesson 4 (IT Class)

Post-Activity

At the end of the lesson, the teacher assesses student progress using the Quiz Time! activity created with a gamified measurement and assessment tool (Annex-6). The game starts online, and the teacher waits for all the students to join in. The teacher explains the game, emphasizing the importance of correct and quick answers to get more points.

Finally, the teacher checks the collaborative task. The teacher initiates the digital story creation tool on the interactive whiteboard and run the audiovisual story created by all the students. A group assessment form allows the students to provide feedback on their peers' performance (Annex-7).

Homework/Assignment

The teacher also uses EBA for assessment and assigns the students Vocabulary Exercise 3: Tourism and Listening Exercise: Tourism.

What's Copyright?

Copyright is like a forcefield protecting your original work. It gives you the right to say how it's used!

What can you do?

• Give Credit!

If you use someone else's work (with permission!), mention their name. It's like saying 'thanks for the awesome idea!'

• Remix Responsibly!

Changing a bit of a song or making a parody video is cool, but make sure it's clearly your own take.

•Ask Permission!

Unsure if something is copyrighted? Just ask the creator! Most people are happy to share if you're respectful.

Diary Script & Comprehension Questions for the Diary

Dear Diary,

We've just got back from our trip to Muğla, and I've already missed it! In my opinion, it was the perfect place for a summer vacation. The weather has been sunny and hot every single day, just the way I like it. To me, there's nothing better than spending hours swimming in the pool.

This year, we decided to stay at an all-inclusive hotel instead of bed and breakfast. I think it was a good change. We had all our meals included. Moreover, there were so many fun activities available at the hotel, like water sports and pool games.

I have never had a boring moment!

We saw some sights in Muğla. The old town has a great history. We saw an amazing Ottoman
