I LIKE MY ROUTINES!

Course	English	Grade	6th Grade	Duration	3 lesson hours (3x40')

This scenario is designed to assist teachers in providing an effective learning experience utilising technology. The teacher may utilise this scenario, which is presented as an exemplar, or adapt it to align with the specific requirements of the students and the physical conditions of the educational institution.

Overview

In this learning scenario, the teacher aims to support the students' cooperation, communication and digital skills and designs the learning activities in accordance with this aim. The students are expected to work in collaboration with their peers in the process of illustrating the given daily routine script, to be creative and productive while playing the miming and gesturing game, the teacher is expected to be in the role of a guide. The teacher employs a variety of techniques in the classroom to facilitate communication and collaboration amongst the students, ensuring a more effective and lasting learning experience, the scenario includes flashcards prepared using interactive presentation tools to make it easy for the students to remember the new daily routine words. To foster the students' creativity, productivity and to develop digital skills, the teacher encourages the students to use a digital story creation tool and the tools for creating digital boards or post its. Furthermore, the teacher utilises visual creation and editing tools to illustrate the repeated actions. The teacher provides the students with clear instructions and immediate feedback through the activities and in this way the students observe their self-improvement.

As the evaluation part, innovative approaches like gamified measurement and evaluation will be used. The teacher wants the students to work in pairs to write a digital story on routines by using the digital story creation tool. Additionally, the teacher measures the students' progress with a peer evaluation form after the students complete writing the digital story and the teacher gives immediate feedback for all the activities throughout the lessons.

Key Concepts: Simple present tense, Routines of celebrities , Routines flashcards

Learning Goals

Students

- Talk about repeated actions.
- Express what they do in their free time.
- Enhance their communication skills.
- Use their creativity to design a digital project.
- Work in collaboration for a project.
- Actively use target language and information technology.

Course Objectives

- E6.1. L1. Students will be able to recognize phrases, words and expressions related to repeated actions.
- E6.1.SP1. Students will be able to use a series of phrases and simple expressions to express their repeated actions.
- E6.1. R1. Students will be able to understand short and simple texts about repeated actions.

Tasks

Teacher

- Creates flashcards for daily routines.
- Guides the students to work in collaboration.
- Encourages the students to take active role in learning.
- Motivates the students to use digital tools.
- Designs innovative activities.
- Creates a flexible and motivating atmosphere for an active learning process.

Student

- Talks about repeated actions.
- Creates a visual story of a daily routine.
- Participates in the learning process actively.
- Works in collaboration with the group members.
- Engages in activities to enhance digital skills.

Instructional Tools/ Technologies

The web tools provided in this scenario are offered as examples. Teachers are free to select and apply any tool they see fit, according to the web tools category. It is recommended that teachers review the web tool in question before use and have a good understanding of the tool's interface.

Hardware

- Interactive whiteboard

Online Tools

APPLICATION

Activities

Before the Lesson

The teacher assigns the students to think of a routine day, their repeated actions and their free time activities. The teacher wants the students to focus on verbs to describe their actions. Thanks to this assignment, the students get the preliminary information about the basic routines and free time activities, and this makes it easy to follow the lesson. Additionally, the teacher prepares Routines Flashcards by using visual creation and editing tools (Annex-1). Lastly, the teacher prepares a Find Routines activity by using a web tool for matching activities and uses the activity for evaluation (Annex-2).

Lesson 1 (Class)

Pre-Activity

The teacher initiates the lesson with a game named "Names and Adjectives". The teacher wants the students to think of an adjective to describe themselves. The adjective must start with the same letter as their name. For instance, "I am Fatma, and I am funny." After all the students tell their names and adjectives, the teacher says "I am funny, I like my routines and also free time activities are very important for me." to draw attention to the new topic. "Without the free time activities and the hobbies, the life will be more boring." says the teacher and asks the students "What are your routines and hobbies? What do you do in your free time?".

While Activity

The teacher initiates the Routines Flashcards on the interactive whiteboard (Annex-1). The teacher focuses on each flashcard and asks the students about their routines. The teacher shares the Routines Flashcards on EBA and wants the students to go over the flashcards for a few times (Annex-1). After completing the flashcards, the teacher asks the students to keep the routines in their mind for the game they will play. The teacher explains the game instructions clearly. The teacher says that one of the students will come to the board and the student will choose a routine to describe to the other classmates. While describing, the student cannot speak. The students can just use mimes or body language. Who knows the correct routine comes to the board and tries to describe another routine. The student who gives the most correct answer becomes the winner and the teacher gives a printed routine flashcard as a prize. The students are instructed to continue playing game until the routines have been sufficiently consolidated.

Post-Activity

Once the required vocabulary has been sufficiently revised, the teacher initiates the Find Routines activity on interactive whiteboard and wants the students to come to the board, drag and drop the correct routine to match it with the correct picture (Annex-2). The teacher provides feedback to the students when they achieve the correct matches.

Before the Lesson

Prior to the lesson, the teacher prepares a presentation of Talking about Routines with the help of interactive presentation tools (Annex-3). Additionally, the teacher creates a sticky note by using a tool for creating digital boards or post-its. Lastly the teacher finds a song named "Hours of the day" about the daily routines to use as a warm-up activity.

Lesson 2 (IT Class)

Pre-Activity

Thanks to the "Hours of the day" song, the students not only remember the routines in a day but also have fun and feel ready for the class. While listening to the song, the teacher wants the students to imitate the mentioned routine by using mimes or body language and in this way the teacher aims to see whether the students can recognise phrases, words and expressions related to repeated actions or not.

While Activity

The teacher initiates the presentation of Talking about Routines with the help of an interactive presentation tool (Annex-3). The teacher focuses on the sample sentences and emphasises the rules of forming a correct sentence. After all positive, negative and question forms are exemplified, the teacher forms extra different types of sentences by using different subjects. The teacher draws attention to the different usage between the singular and plural subjects. To make the difference clear, the teacher writes simple sample sentences on the board by using the same verbs. For instance, "I get up at 7 a.m." and "Ann gets up at 7 a.m." and emphasises the suffix "-s, -es, -ies". To deepen understanding, the teacher asks the students to form sentences of their routines by using simple present tense. The teacher shares the Talking about Routines presentation on EBA and asks the students to repeat the subject as much as possible (Annex-3).

Post-Activity

The teacher creates a sticky note by using a tool for creating digital boards or post-its. The teacher displays the sample sticky note including a casual morning routine and shares the morning routine sticky note with the students. The sticky note starts like "I get up at 7 in the morning. I wash my hands and face, brush my teeth. After I have my breakfast..." The teacher asks the students to work individually on the sticky note and to continue to write their routine day at least with five sentences. The teacher helps the students to write their routines. When the students have finished, they share their work with their classmates, who can like or comment on it.

Homework/Assignment

As an assignment the teacher shares Grammar Exercise 1: Life on EBA. The teacher asks the students to match the pictures with the correct sentences.

Before the Lesson

Prior to the lesson, the teacher uses artificial intelligence powered tools to write and record the daily routine of a famous person. The teacher may use prompts such as "Write the basic routine day of Aziz Sancar with ten sentences by using simple present tense." or "Write an ordinary day of Messi with ten sentences." The teacher prepares a peer assessment form to be used as an evaluation at the end of the lesson (Annex-4).

Lesson 3 (IT Class)

Pre-Activity

The teacher initiates the lesson with a video titled "Morning Routines of Highly Successful People". After watching the video, the teacher asks, "What is the importance of our routine?" and tries to emphasise the significance of a planned routine day.

While Activity

The teacher shows the daily routine of a famous person created by artificial intelligence powered tools. With assistance from an artificial intelligence powered tool, the teacher guides each student through an audio text, which is played through headphones. The teacher goes over each sentence to remind the students the usage of simple present tense and the verbs to state routines. Following a thorough reading and listening of the script, the teacher provides instruction to the students to work in pairs to create an illustration of the script. The teacher explains to the students what to do in detail and reminds that their works will be evaluated by their pairs. The teacher asks students to read the script again and dream on the routines mentioned. After the students dream of the character's daily routine, use a digital story creation tool to illustrate their character's routine. While the students are working on their stories, the teacher walks around the classroom, observes the works, provides feedback and helps the students if they need.

Post-Activity

The teacher distributes the peer assessment form to the students and wants them to evaluate their workmate (Annex-4). The teacher discusses the results of the assessment with the students and provides the necessary feedback.

The Transcript of 'Routines Flashcards' Presentation

Description: The teacher prepares a presentation by using an interactive presentation tool to show Kate's routines to exemplify the positive, negative and question forms of simple present tense. The teacher attaches the visuals and routines as follows:

For the first page, write Simple Present Tense and Talking about Kate' Routines.

For the second page, attach six visuals of "Get up/Brush teeth/Have breakfast/Walk to school/Do homework/Read a book. Under each visual, write these sentences in order:

"I get up at seven o'clock. What time do you get up?"

"I brush my teeth."

"I have breakfast with my family."

"I walk to school with my friends."

"I do my homework."

"I read a book before I go to bed."

For the third page, attach two "True/False" question to check comprehension.

1. Kate gets up early. (True)

2. Kate does not have breakfast. (False)

For the fourth page, write two questions related to routines.

1. Does Kate go to school by bus?

No, she does not.

2. How does Kate go to school?

She goes to school on foot.

For the fifth page, write:

Remember:

We use "-s" suffix for "He/She/It" subjects in positive sentences

We do not use "-s" suffix for "I/You/We/They" subjects in positive sentences

For the sixth page, write:

We use "do not" for "I/You/We/They" subjects in negative sentences.

We use "does not" for "He/She/It" subjects in negative sentences.

Example:

We do not go to school on Sunday.

Tom does not go to school by bus.

Peer Evaluation Form

This form has been designed for you to evaluate the work of your friend on writing the routines of a famous person and illustrating the story. For each criterion, select the rating that best reflects your assessment on a scale of 1 to 5, and indicate your choice by placing a tick in the relevant box.
